Tohu Pinot Gris 2007

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

While New Zealand has been garnering quite a reputation for Sauvignon Blanc, it only figures that they'd make wonderful wines from other aromatic grape varieties as well. This Pinot Gris is a wine that delivers ripe, exotic flavors like yellow peach and tropical fruits along with a solid, oily texture and crisp, clean finish. It is a great value!

Christine Andrew Malbec 2005

$14.99 per bottle or $80.94 six pack case

East of Napa lies the Lodi region with all of its warm days and cool nights. A considerably Mediterranean climate allows late-ripening grapes like Zinfandel, Petite Sirah and Malbec to ripen and make rich, delicious powerful wines like this one. The Christine Andrew Malbec has excellent fruit and telltale chocolate richness. It is a powerful and wonderful wine for those last few grilled steaks of the season or, decant it for 30 minutes and enjoy it with a roast.
