Cantina del Taburno Falanghina 2007

$12.99 per bottle or $140.29 per case

The Cantina del Taburno is one of Italy's leading co-operative wineries, and, the Falanghina made here has the tell-tale purity of all of their wines. It has natural richness with the grapes' honey and almond flavors shining. But, like Italian whites tend to, it has wonderful acidity and great nerve. A salad, a picnic, casual time with friends—you name it, this is an excellent white wine for just about anything summer throws at you!

Le Pigeonnier Côtes-du-Rhône 2005

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

This completely elegant and succulent wine took almost no time convincing us it could be a fabulous Wine of the Month here at Table & Vine. It is made by the Vidal-Fleury Winery but, more importantly by Marcel Guigal as Vidal-Fleury is a second winery he and his family owns. Just a bit more than half Grenache, it is offset by the balance being Syrah; not an in your face over the top style. The wine is polished and delicious, and, just a wonderful example of Côtes-du-Rhône. It is a great wine for sipping with anything grilled!
