Clos des Tournans Bourgogne Chardonnay 2006

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

A wine-obsessed friend recently visited Burgundy and after tasting quite a few wines reported back that 2006 was a special vintage, and we should buy lots of the white wines. A great place to start is with this delicious, forward Chardonnay. Fresh ripe apple and pear fruit is enhanced with hints of creamy butter and a balanced finish that will pair nicely with any fresh seafood. Or, you might pull the cork just for sipping!

Angelini Sangiovese 2004

$12.99 per bottle or $70.14 per six-pack case

Le Marche is on Italy's east coast at the same latitude as that of Tuscany on the west coast. This Sangiovese comes from Le Marche and is terrific old-style Sangiovese. Ripe fruit is counteracted by excellent acidity—a natural trait of Sangiovese. The balance makes it a winner for spicy foods, or grilled anything. With only 6000 bottles made, we are honored to feature this wine, and encourage you take advantage of the six-pack price!
