

Wines of the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2009

MontGras Quatro 2007

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

A four-grape blend, Quatro is a wine with complexity and personality beyond its price tag. It is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Carmenere and Syrah. This is where Chilean wines seem to shine. They blend multiple soils and grapes together to make a wine with drive and power, but at the same time the wine remains focused and smooth. This is a great summertime wine when grilled steaks are on the menu!

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2009

Spy Valley Sauvignon Blanc
2008

$13.99 per bottle or $151.09 per case

Consistently a solid value, it was just a matter of time before Spy Valley made its way into our Wines of the Month program. This Sauvignon Blanc is fresh and forward with exotic flavors and a refreshing finish. While many New Zealand Sauvignon Blancs tend to focus on the fruit, Spy Valley has an almost French sensibility about it with some mineral notes and a gorgeous dry finish. This Sauvignon Blanc is best enjoyed when served alongside a shellfish dinner, particularly scallops and lobster.

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2009

Domaine

Desmoulins Rosé 2008

$11.99 per bottle or $129.49 per case

From France's Loire Valley comes this refreshing Rosé made from the Gamay grape. Fresh and lively, the winery labels this wine "The Color of Vines" because of its pure gorgeous color and inviting translation of their vines to your bottle. This is a fabulous Rosé that is begging to join you on a warm summer evening.

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.