

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

Domaine Thevenot-Le Brun
Bourgogne Rouge 2007

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

Let's face it, the words affordable and Burgundy are not strung together very often. But we found one! Terrific Pinot Noir here, with fresh, red fruit and a dry finish that is lip-smacking delicious and framed by the essence of crushed herbs.

This is a tremendous choice for Thanksgiving, and once you taste it, you'll want to drink it throughout the holiday season!

Leitz Riesling Kabinett 2008

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

When Johannes Leitz came to visit, he asked if Table & Vine might be interested in access to some very limited production wines that he makes. We immediately said "YES!" This is the first of those wines and it hails from a vineyard that usually produces Spätlese, but instead, he produced a small lot of affordable Kabinett. It is terrific and relatively dry with gorgeous fruit and a balanced finish. It is a great match for turkey!

Ottimino Zinfandel "Zinfinity"

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

This is one of the most exciting wines to come to Table & Vine this year! Ottimino specializes in single-vineyard Zinfandels, but also make this affordable wine. It is a blend from their vineyards and is aged in oak and treated with the same care as their other wines. This is an amazing value! Rich and blessed with amazing fruit, this is a great American choice for Thanksgiving, but will surprise you with all sorts of foods!
