

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

Penalolen

Cabernet Sauvignon 2007

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

Here's another great story of a vineyard owner wanting to produce better quality wines than his ancestors. All of the grapes are grown and hand-harvested with meticulous care so that a wine of such particular character is created. The quality is simply amazing! This 2007 is firm and properly structured with gorgeous fruit and some hints of tobacco and a spicy finish. This is a new entry to our Chilean section and you're just gonna love it!

Masciarelli Villa Gemma
Bianco 2009

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

Gianni Masciarelli was an amazing visionary and winemaker, producing wines from throughout the various sub-zones of Abruzzo. The Villa Gemma Estate is the most prestigious and the best wines in Abruzzo come from this estate. This white came as no surprise as a result. It is a tremendous wine! Mostly Trebbiano, it is backed up with a touch of Chardonnay and the local Cocociolo. For those of you feeling a bit Chardonnayed out, this is a great choice!

A bottle of wine and a glass of rosé wine. The bottle is on the left, partially obscured by the glass. The glass is on the right, filled with a vibrant pinkish-red wine. The background is white.

Château de Ségriès

Tavel Rosé 2009

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

The tiny town of Tavel with a population of only 1,600 has been famous for Rosé wine since 1936 and has carried this mantle from generation to generation, and this is one of the best we've tasted! Château de Ségriès is a wonderful source of value. In fact, some of our favorite Southern Rhône wines come from these folks. The 2009 Tavel is a polished wine with great balance and a spicy finish.
