

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2011

Montegiudi Pecorino Bianco
2009

$14.99 per bottle or $80.94 /six pack

Pecorino is the name of the grape and it produces medium bodied wines that have terrific richness with outstanding acidity. These two characteristics meld together to make this the perfect picnic wine. It would love to join you for an afternoon of chilled salads and snacks. This is a truly special wine and you better act fast, only a couple hundred cases came to America!

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2011

Manoir du Carra

Beaujolais-Villages 2010

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

One of the most pleasant ways to spend a summer afternoon is eating a leisurely lunch and sipping a chilled bottle of Beaujolais. This artisan made, unfiltered Beaujolais will shock you with its incredible amount of flavor. That said, it is true to its type... light red in color and a flavor of strawberries and sprinkled herbs. This is an incredible food wine!

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.

A bottle of wine and a glass of rosé wine. The bottle is on the left, partially filled with a light pink liquid. The glass is on the right, filled with the same liquid. The background is white.

Wines ^{of} the Month

Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

July 2011

Mas Sainte Berthe Rosé 2010

$13.99 per bottle or $151.09 per case

The town of Les Baux-de-Provence is a source of great wineries and farms that make some of France's best olive oil. Mas Sainte Berthe is one of those farms. Their Rosé is one of those fabulous Provençal wines that we eagerly anticipate each and every year. It is great with food or without. It's simply begging for Ratatouille from fresh, ripe summertime vegetables right from the garden!

Michael J. Quinlan, Jr.