Walking through a vineyard, the grapes you see look pretty much like grapes on a vine. But to Michael J. Quinlan, Jr., he sees the grapes as the beginning of a wonderful glass of wine. Our Wines of the Month are carefully chosen by Michael so that he can proudly show off the tremendous selection available in our store, and highlight great wines you may not be familiar with...yet!

Gobelsburger

Gruner Veltliner 2010

$13.99 per bottle or $151.09 per case

We were intrigued with this wine after reading that importer Terry These called it his favorite of the vintage. So we tried it. And WOW!, this delivers! We have long said that Grüner Veltliner is like spicy Pinot Grigio. This one would be the best Pinot Grigio you ever had... with a dash of white pepper. Elegant but ripe, this is a spectacular wine and while it certainly comes from off the beaten track, one try and you'll want it again!

Kali Heart Chardonnay 2009

$14.99 per bottle or $161.89 per case

The Talbott winery has been a constant source of terrific Chardonnay and Pinot Noir for decades. Kali Hart is one of their affordable wines that still comes from all Chardonnay they grow themselves. Soft, round fruit lets you know this is the friendly California style rounded off with a hint of oak. This is a terrific value and a wine we will all enjoy!
